- 25X1 1. Early in 1951, a program to give pre-military training to students was instituted. Instruction is at primary school, secondary school, and university level and attendance is compulsory. Among the subjects taught are hygiene, "passive defense", and politics. The regular teaching staff teaches these subjects in addition to their normal duties. The training period consists of one hour per week.
- 25X1 2. A training school for Trudovak "corporals" is located in Karnobat. The courses given here last three months. Ten men were sent to the school in December 1951, after volunteering for the assignment.
- 25X1 3. In autumn 1951, "many" reserves of the 1905 to 1928 classes were called up and were given training of an unknown type for 15 to 45 days.
